General Agents,
Messrs JARDINE, MATHESON & Co.

Bankers,
THE HONGKONG AND SHANGHAI BANKING CORPORATION.

Refiners,
WM. H. BEEZEON, Esq.

THIS Company has been formed for the purpose of acquiring from the present Proprietors the PROPERTY, INTEREST, and GOODWILL of the CHINA SUGAR REFINERY at East Point, which for the past five years has been managed under the direction of Messrs JARDINE, MATHESON and COMPANY, comprising the LAND and BUILDINGS occupied by the Refinery, and the PLANT, MACHINERY, and STOCK-IN-TRADE therein, and of carrying on the Business of a Sugar Refinery in all its branches, for which complete facilities are now afforded not only in the Ground and Premises, Plant and Machinery referred to, but in the valuable Business and Connection possessed by the present Owners.

The above-mentioned Premises comprise, firstly, that PIKES or PARCELS of GROUND, in Hongkong, registered in the Land Office as Marine Lot No. 231, with the Messages and BUILDINGS thereon, known as the Mint Premises; and those adjoining PIKES of GROUND, registered in the Land Office as Island Lots Nos. 470, 471, 616, 624, 626, and 748, with the Messages and BUILDINGS thereon, adjoining the said Marine Lot, portions of the premises occupied by the China Sugar Refinery, or belonging thereto, and the PLANT, MA-CHINERY, ENGINES, BOILERS, VACUUM PANS, FURNITURES, FITTINGS, and APPLIances therein, now used by the China Sugar Refinery; secondly, that PIKES or PARCELS of GROUND in Hongkong aforesaid, with the Messages and BUILDINGS thereon, registered in the Land Office as Section A of Marine Lot No. 52, with the Messages and BUILDINGS thereon, being the remainder of the Premises comprising the said Refinery; and, thirdly, the STOCK-IN-TRADE, EXTRA PLANT, MACHINERY, GOODS, and CHATTELS, which are or will be in and about the said Premises and belonging to the Owners on the 25th day of January next. All the described Premises have been agreed to be sold to the Company by contract in writing dated the 22nd day of January, 1878, made between the HONGKONG AND SHANGHAI BANKING CORPORATION of the first part, Messrs JARDINE, MATHESON & Co., of the second part, and the above-named Committee for and on behalf of the Company of the third part; whereby it was agreed that without any further sanction or confirmation of or by the Company or the Shareholders, the Premises firstly and secondly mentioned should be absolutely made over to the Company for the aggregate sum of $425,000, made up as follows:— —For the Premises, firstly mentioned, the sum of $300,000 to be paid to the first-mentioned party; for the Premises secondly mentioned, the sum of $125,000 to be paid to the second-mentioned party. And as to the thirdly named Premises, the price payable for the same to the first-named party, to be ascertained by a valuation to be made on the 25th day of February next, the value thereof being now roughly estimated at $100,000.

Mr. DICKIN, under whose able management the Works have been placed in their present efficient state, has offered his services to the Company as Manager, which have been accepted. Although it has been in contemplation for some years past to transfer the Property and Business of the present Proprietors to a Public Company, it was not thought prudent to do so until by such an experience of the working of the Company, as has been gained during the last three years, its future success should be assured.

The present Proprietors are prepared to hand over the Property and Business to the Company in a state of complete efficiency on the first of March next, and arrangements are being made to commence full work on that date.

The Business of the Company will be conducted by Messrs JARDINE, MATHESON & Co., as General Agents, assisted by a Consulting Committee.

It is intended that the whole of the Capital shall be called up as follows:— $25 per Share on allotment, or within 10 days thereafter; $75 per Share on 1st day of March, 1878, or within 10 days thereafter; All Calls unpaid after these dates shall bear interest at 12 per cent. per annum.
The surplus Capital after payment of the Purchase Money of the Property as above-mentioned, estimated at above $250,000, will be available for working the Business of the Company.

One half of the Shares have already been subscribed; and the remainder are offered to the public. Applications for Shares, which should be in the annexed Form, will be received by the General Agents, up to the 20th day of February, 1878.

THE CHINA MAIL.
HONGKONG, THURSDAY, FEB. 7, 1878.

In the Friend of China recently there appeared an interesting resumé of a number of Chinese reviews of the Address of the Anglo-Oriental Society to the Chinese people. This Address, which was published about a year and a half ago in the Chinese language, condemned opium smoking, deplored England's past and present connection with the opium-trade, and invited China to co-operate with Great Britain in suppressing it.

The Friend of China had received thirty-one native reviews of this Address. Of these, we are told, eight are decidedly hostile to the Address and to the whole movement of which it is a part; eleven are distinctly favourable to it; seven neutral, and five hard to classify, the writers appearing incredulous or puzzled rather than antagonistic. All the reviewers are unanimous in condemning opium-smoking, but upon the merits of the address the widest divergences appear.

Five of the writers who may be regarded as antagonistic to the Address, launch into some most extraordinary reasonings as to England's motives for desiring to suppress the trade. We are not quite sure that any such desire does exist, or at least in a sufficiently strong form to determine the British Government to face the results of carrying it into execution, but nonimport.

Mr. Ngau-Yang Kai says he was much affected by the perusal of the Address, but adds in the next line: "Truly these English are capital schemers for empire; some folk say the proposal is made out of love for China, but I say it is made out of love for themselves." Mr. Ngau-Yan then goes on to argue in rather a roundabout manner that India derives such a large profit from the opium-trade, that unless it be suppressed, Russia is bound to think of India, and will one day certainly get it! Consequently Mr.
Ngau-Yan concludes that "the clever English have devised this complete scheme (of suppressing the opium-trade) whereby to dissipate the jealousy of all the kingdoms and stay the designs of Russia. This is capital diplomacy, and in addition England gets the credit of high morality in China. Capital, capital!" It would evidently take some trouble to convince this reviewer of the sincerity of any attempts on the part of the English people to suppress the opium-trade.

The next reviewer, Mr. Sma Min, gives a dialogue between himself and a recluse, who, having read the address, contemptuously rejects the suggestion that opium can be suppressed by any combination of Chinese and English authorities. He then proceeds to denounce, in stronger terms than the first writer, the English for duplicity and selfishness in putting forth the Address, and abuses the Chinese in no measured terms for becoming the tools of the English. The third reviewer, Mr. Wai Ngai-kung, also seems to have caught the Russian craze. After some elaborate political theorizing he comes to the conclusion that England, France and America will ultimately fight Russia and thirty states subject to her over the possession of India and the opium-trade; that if England wins the must divide the prize with her allies, France and America, while, if Russia wins, the whole world will be jealous of Russia and combine against her; therefore Mr. Wai advises England to suppress the opium trade for her own sake as speedily as possible.

The fourth reviewer illustrates his views by a parable, in which England is represented as engaged in poisoning his eldest brother's children (the Chinese), the other brothers regarding the matter with indifference. Then the reviewer threatens these other brothers, Russia, France, Prussia and America, that one day they shall suffer from the poison, as a punishment for their heartless indifference to China's wrong. He points out that the cultivation of the poppy will spread from provinces to provinces until it has covered China, when it will invade and over-run the kingdoms of the West.
Accordingly he urges all countries to combine in sending a demand that the cultivation of the poppy in India shall cease, and in case of refusal he urges that a joint army should be levied for the subjugation of India. China should also make a solemn appeal to all nations for deliverance from this oppression.

The fifth reviewer writes in much the same strain as the first. He calculates that by opium the Governor of India must be made far richer than the Emperor of China himself, and this circumstance he thinks will certainly provoke other countries to attack us. This writer seems to be labouring under the notion, which the Friend of China says is a common one, that Jesus was an Englishman, and the founder of the dynasty which at present occupies the English throne. Hence the following passages in his review:—
"When Jesus first established His kingdom, He was one who could indeed give His life to save others. Therefore He established a very great kingdom. At the present time those who say Jesus are not in heart at one with His doctrine. They certainly have not the heart of Jesus. The whole kingdom, its sovereign, ministers, and the upper and lower classes of the people, combine in acting contrary to that virtue which established this kingdom.
Will not this kingdom surely decay? If Jesus knows about this, He ought to hide Himself and weep."

The writer is apparently a Christian, although the bases of his conversion must have been somewhat vague. What, however, these reviews seem to pre-eminently indicate is that the reputation of England would be just as likely to suffer as to gain from the suppression of the opium-trade. Whether the Chinese mind is incapable of appreciating national sincerity and bonhomie, or whether the proposal of the Anti-Opium Society to abolish the Indian opium-trade in favour of Chinese, Portuguese and Dutch enterprise is too absurd to demand the confidence of the matter-of-fact Chinaman, is a point we are not prepared to decide, but certainly so far as these reviewers are concerned—educated men from a Chinese point of view though they may be—one or the other or both of these considerations must be held answerable for the extraordinary lubrications to which we have just directed attention.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Merry Makers will give their first performance in the City Hall this evening, and from what we have seen concerning them, we believe the entertainment is of a highly entertaining kind.

We are requested to state that the officers of the Royal Naval Hospital did not attend the Royal Naval Ball as "guests"—as many were led to suppose by the arrangements the Committee thought fit to make —but as "hosts."
